GIGANTIC EARTHQUAKE.

SHOCKS RECORDED ALL OVER THE WORLD.

DURATION MORE THAN FIVE HOURS.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, June 26.

Very violent earthquake shocks are reported from several world centres.

A message from Faenza, Italy, gives a record of a shock at Bondandis Observatory which began at three in the morning and lasted for four hours. It appeared to have occurred seven thousand miles away. The quivering of the apparatus carried off the quills from the instrument.

A Cape Town message says a shock was registered at the Royal Observatory which lasted two and a half hours, beginning at three fifty in the morning, apparently five thousand six hundred miles off.

From Sydney comes a report that shocks were still roaring through the instrument at Riverview Observatory at four in the afternoon, after over five hours' duration.

[On enquiry at the Royal Observatory to-day we learn that the quake was recorded in Hongkong. It was first recorded at 1 hour 50 mins. 7 secs. Greenwich time, which would be 9.50.7 p.m. here. The maximum movement took place at 10.7 p.m., the movement being 16 millimetres on either side of zero. The movements lasted a little over three hours. The preliminary tremors were so indistinct that it is not possible here to estimate the distance at which the quake took place.]

SERIOUS EGYPTIAN AGITATION.

ATTEMPTS TO ALIENATE THE SUDAN.

London, June 26.

In connection with Lord Parmoor's announcement that the Government would abandon the Sudan, a Cairo message reports that a Deputy read in the Egyptain Chamber on June 24 a telegram which he said he had received from Khartum alleging that the police had dispersed a peaceful demonstration of Sudanese in favour of King Fuad and Zaglul Pasha, and that eleven demonstrators had been wounded and five imprisoned. The Nationalist organisation "Wafd" has issued a manifesto alleging that the Imperialists are suppressing expressions of public opinion in the Sudan and trying to obtain the confidence of the Sudanese by illegitimate means and faked petitions.

The message says the "Wafd," which has assumed the task of realisation of complete independence for Egypt and the Sudan, protest very strongly against such methods, and informs the Sudanese "Brethren" that the hour of salvation is near.

The Egyptian Senate has passed a resolution protesting against "the English methods towards the Sudan directed at preventing the Sudanese expressing their attachment to Egypt."

NO SHIRT.

SURREYS' CORPORAL IN TROUBLE.

That he did not see the order, and that he did not understand that he had been placed under open arrest, was the defence of a corporal in the East Surreys who was charged before a District Court Martial this morning with failing to obey battalion orders and with breaking out of barracks when under open arrest. The members of the Court were:—Major W. P. A. Hattersley Smith, D.S.O. R.G.A. (president), Capt. A. Doulds, 2/4th Bombay Grenadiers, and Lieut. G. P. Yoe, East Surrey Regt., Lieut. A. E. Cotton, M.C. prosecuted and Lieut. E. J. Cooper acted as "prisoner's friend."

Accused, Corporal J. Hockham, pleaded not guilty.

Capt. C. Lugard said he was on duty at Kowloon in Butt A on May 28th. Accused, who was N. C. O. in charge, had taken his tunic off and witness saw that he was not wearing the regulation shirt, having only a singlet on.

Cross-examined, Capt. Lugard said he was unable to produce the order that shirts must be worn at all times, but he knew it existed, either as a battaltion order or a detail given to companies.

C.S.M. Coombs produced the order which stated that shirts must be worn up to twelve noon. It was posted on the notice board, he said, from May 25th until June 12th.

L.C. Crouch deposed to arresting accused as he was leaving barracks. He had no right to leave barracks, as he had been previously placed under open arrest.

Accused said he paraded in his tunic and was inspected by an officer. After the butt fatigue, he was spoken to by Captain Lugard, but did not understand from what he said that he was under open arrest. He thought he was at perfect liberty to leave.

Lieut. Cooper, on prisoner's behalf, said that the corporal was accused of disobeying battalion orders, whereas he did not consider that it was a battalion order. In any case, he submitted that it referred to parades which were ordered in shirt sleeves.

After consideration, the Court found prisoner guilty.

Several previous offences were proved, though prisoner pointed out that all had occured since he joined "C" Company.

Sentence will be promulgated in due course.

EASTERN EXTENSION AND WIRELESS.

OBLIGED TO WAIT AND SEE.

London, June 26.

Presiding at the annual meeting of the Eastern Extension, Australasia and China Telegraph Company, Sir John Denison Ponder said the company had applied for a wireless license, but had to wait and see what was Britain's declared policy before anything could be done. They had received the terms for a license as regards India, but it was absolutely impossible for the company to carry out the terms.

SHARE BOOM.

WHARVES' RECORD PRICE.

Other Stocks Also Rising.

Following the half-yearly settlement, something like a "boom" appears to have set in on the local share market. On Wednesday business was extremely quiet, with very few shares changing hands and with very few enquiries. Yesterday, however, a change came over affairs and with brisk enquiries and all sorts of rumours, several stocks jumped up in price.

Wharves have been mostly in demand. Yesterday afternoon the price jumped to $190 for for cash, whilst this morning, at the meeting of the Stock Exchange, 400 shares changed hands at $200 for cash. A little later in the street a small cash sale at $205 was done. This is easily a record price for this stock, the previous highest cash rate being $190, which was reached during the height of the "boom" in January and February. There are various rumours in circulation regarding justification for such a high rise. Some say that the Company is about to take over some portion of the naval land next their own, whilst others speak of a sale of the plot used as a timber yard.

Docks have risen from $141 to $150, whilst Lands have gone from $109½ to $114. Trams keep steady at $37½ and, although there has been no appreciable rise in other stocks, there are many enquiries.

A local broker told a Telegraph representative this morning, that the whole market was extremely firm with an upward tendency. It was quite possible that before the day closed, further advances would have have been registered.

RENTS LAW.

1924 AMENDMENT CAUSES MUCH LITIGATION.

With over 130 cases on the list, His Honour Mr. A. Dyer Ball spent a very busy hour this morning in fixing hearing days, giving adjournements and generally getting the business of the Summary Court into shape for the coming weeks. A great amount of litigation has arisen over the 1924 amendment to the Rents Restriction Ordinance, over 90 cases out of the above-mentioned 130 being actions brought by landlords against tenants for the recovery of possession. The majority sine die, pending the decision of the Full Court case, which is being made a test case on the point at issue.

In the case of solicitors who wanted hearing dates fixed, his Honour was forced, owing to pressure of Court work, to fix cases as far ahead as August 7th.

A little amusement was caused when Mr. W. B. Hind pressed for a hearing date in one of his cases by remarking:—"I must have something definite because I have to get my witnesses out of jail."

M. MERLIN CRITICISED.

CABLE TO FRANCE.

Alleged Callous Attitude Regarding Outrage.

Judging from news which reaches us to-day from our Canton correspondent, there is considerable feeling amongst the French community there regarding the attitude of seeming unconcern shown by His Excellency M. Merlin on the occasion of the recent Shameen outrage. It is said that the Governor did not render any assistance to the wounded on the night of the outrage, although he remained until all were taken to hospital, and the French residents of the Shameen say that he merely waited for a guard to take him back to the French Consulate. The general opinion amongst the French community is that he should have stayed in Canton for the funeral of the victims, or, at least, visited the wounded on the morning following the outrage. Our correspondent says that the French residents on Shamen have, as a consequence, sent a cable to the President of France complaining of the Governor General's attitude, and that this message has been despatched with the full approval of all the French community.

FOLLOWING UP CLUES.

M. Jeanbrau, the Chief of Political Affairs in Indo-China, who was with M. Merlin at the time of the outrage, is still on the Shameen, following up clues. He has received a photograph of the assassin (taken before the latter's death) from the Chinese police and he has telegraphed to Hanoi a description of the man. Despite the fact that the body was decomposed when found, there is a strong resemblance between this photograph and that of the corpse, especially about the forehead and chin.

THE ASSASSIN'S MOVEMETS.

The police have, says our correspondent, now traced the movements of the assassin outside the hotel on the night of the outrage. It appears that he was in front of the middle window, taking bearings, when a lukong told him to shift on. This he did, to the end window, where the lukong followed him, and, on again being told to move on, he said that he was a photographer. This the lukong believed and left him alone. The lukong then saw him put the infernal machine between his legs, do something to it, and then hurl it through the window. Then the man dashed off. It was most fortunate for the Governor General that the lukong told the assassin to move on, because the latter was at first immediately opposite M. Merlin.

THE WOUNDED.

As to the condition of the wounded, Messrs. Fournier and Begin left the hospital yesterday. Madame Rollin, Dr. Casabianca, and Capt. Bernard are still in hospital, but are making excellent recoveries and are now out of danger.

STRAITS JUDGE "KIDNAPPED."

Result of Hongkong Appointment.

An official communique issued in Colombo on June 14 states:—

"By instructions from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. L. H. Elphinstone, who was proceeding on the "Malwa," which arrived in Colombo this morning, to take up the post of a Puisne Judge in the Straits Settlements, was offered and accepted the post of Attorney-General of Ceylon in succession to Sir Henry Gollan who has been appointed Chief Justice of Hongkong. Pending the departure of the latter, which will probably take place in about three months' time, Mr. Elphinstone will act as Solicitor-General."

MACAO'S WELCOME.

FINE RECEPTION FOR AIRMEN.

"Patria" First and "Patria" Last.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Macao, June 25th.

Macao to-day gave a wonderful welcome to the Portuguese aviators on their arrival here aboard the gunboat Patria. More than an hour before their appearance the whole of the Praia Grande was crowded with people, whilst at the jetty hundreds were attempting to get a good position from which to catch a glimpse of the airmen as they came ashore.

It was nearly four o'clock when the Patria was sighted some distance away slowly steaming into port, and some time later the two airmen, with their mechanic, were rowed ashore by men of the Patria, who offered their services. When the aviators stepped ashore the jetty was invaded by the crowds, so much so that the police were helpless in their efforts to keep a clear passage. Young ladies showered flowers on the airmen as they landed. His Excellency the Governor being the first to greet the aviators. Then, amidst the cheers of the onlookers, the party moved to the Town Hall, flowers being thrown out of the windows all along the route.

THE SPEECHES.

The Hall itself was crowded to overflowing for the official welcome. Mr. H. Nolasco, President of the Leal Senado, was the first speaker and he gave a hearty welcome to the airmen, commenting at length on their tenacity and courage.

Mr. Magalhes Correia, in the name of the Navy, next congratulated the airmen. After referring to the flight across the Atlantic by Sacadura Cabral and Gago Coutinho, he went on to speak of the present flight, in which the three airmen present had once again demonstrated qualities of bravery and pluck.

Colonel Eduardo Viana spoke in the name of the Army, dwelling at length on the details of the flight and its value.

His Excellency the Governor was the last of the speakers to welcome the airmen, and his speech was most eloquent. From beginning to end said His Excellency, the three aviators had shown tenacity and courage, and if Fate prevented them from landing in Macao, they nevertheless went even further and in the end they had arrived at their destination. By their flight they had added a new page to the brave deeds of intrepid Portuguese. His Excellency's speech was loudly applauded.

LEADER'S REPLY.

Major Brito Paes, in replying, thanked the speakers for all they had said, but remarked that they did not deserve the reception given them, because what they had accomplished would be done by many of their countrymen today. He then gave a brief description of the flight, saying that in crossing the Mediterranean he followed Coutinho's method in aiming at the places to be touched in the flight, and the theory of "the master" did not fail them. In conclusion, he recalled the fact that the gunboat Patria was the last ship which Coutinho commanded, and it seemed written by Fate that the same ship should bring them to Macao. He added, amid cheers, that they started their flight on the seroplane Patria and now they had reached their destination in the gunboat Patria.

CATHEDRAL SERVICE.

After the reception, the three aviators attended a special Te Deum service at the Cathedral to return thanks for the safe conclusion of their flight. The Bishop, in the course of his sermon, emphasised the brave deeds that had been accomplished with the help of God. He pointed out that the French airman, Capt. D'Oisy, on his arrival in Canton thanked God for the success of his flight, and in Tokyo he did the same.

The service concluded, His Excellency the Governor escorted the airmen through the city and then the party proceeded to the Governor's Palace, where the aviators were entertained.

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.

In the evening there was a big torchlight procession, to witness which large crowds gathered in the Leal Senado Square fully an hour before the time fixed for the commencement. Those who took part in the procession included soldiers, sailors, civil officials and residents as well as Chinese scholars. Much enthusiasm was displayed by the thousands of people thronging the streets. The procession circled the town and returned to the Square, afterwards proceeding to the Governor's Palace, where bombs and firecrackers were fired. The aviators were greatly delighted with the reception given them and thanked everybody for what had been done in their honour. At about ten o'clock the airmen went for a motor-car ride, many cars following them, and it was midnight before the revels came to an end.

"GROSSLY MISREPRESENTED."

BRITISH PREMIER DENIES BELGIAN REPORT.

NO DEFENSIVE MILITARY AGREEMENT.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, June 26.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald was cross-examined at question time in the House of Commons with reference to a statement attributed to M. Herriot in an interview with the Independance Belge, which has aroused a furious controversy in the French and British press, that in the event of a premeditated German attack he had received the firm promise that Britain, as in 1914, would be on the side of France and Belgium, and he had the assurance of a firm pact binding the three countries.

Mr. MacDonald complained that his conversations with M. Herriot had been grossly misrepresented and falsified by certain newspapers. The communique of June 22nd and his statement of June 23rd, covered the whole ground of the conversations. The reports mentioned in the question were based either on confusion or imagination. There was absolutely no kind of undertaking as regards a defensive military alliance so far as the conversations with M. Herriot were concerned.

M. HERRIOT RETURNS.

Paris, June 26.

Submitting an account of the "Chequers" and Brussels conversations to the Senate Chamber, M. Herriot said Mr. MacDonald told him that in the event of a German default in execution of the Dawes plan, Britain would solemnly undertake to stand by the Allies. Britain desired Germany to give a written undertaking to carry out the necessary measures for execution of the plan. He insisted to MacDonald the necessity for a settlement of the inter-allied debts question, and the British Premier admitted this should be taken up without delay.

OPEN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

ENGLISHMEN IN THE LEAD.

London, June 26.

At Hoylake on the occasion of the open golf championship there was hot sunshine, with a huge attendance.

The scores at the end of the first round were:—Cyril Tolley, (Royal and Ancient) seventy-three; George Duncan (Hanger Hill), Len Holland (Northampton), and Mark Seymour (St. Leonards), seventy-four; E. Douglas (Robinhood), Aubrey Boomer (St. Cloud), Gilbert Nicholls (America), and J. Taylor (Mid Surrey), seventy-five; the American McDonald Smith seventy six; Hagen seventy-seven; Barnes seventy-eight, and Sarazen eighty-three.

The conclusion of the first day's play found the Englishmen as confident, though the Americans Hagen and Smith were well within striking distance. E. R. Whitcombe, of Camelown, leads the field with 147. His second round, of seventy, equalled the course record. J. H. Taylor's score was 149, Hagen and Smith 150, J. Sherlock and Hunstanton 151, Holland 152, Duncan, Boomer and Nicholls 153, Tadd 154, Barnes, Tolley and Herd 155, Havers 156, Mitchell and Sarazen 158, Braid and Ray 160, and Wethered 167.

AN OLD ROBBERY.

MAN NOW ARRESTED.

There is now in the custody of the police a man named Yu Sing, who is alleged to have taken part, along with others, in an armed robbery in the New Territories last year.

The master of a grocery shop at Yung Long Wan, who was one of those victimised, had been taken away for ransom and was liberated, after four months of captivity, on payment by relatives of a sum of $480. At a visit he made to the market village of Sunkai, Yuen Long, the other day saw a man whom he recognised to be one of the robbers and gave information to the police, which led to the man's arrest.

LIME KILN SITE.

BOUGHT FOR $600.

Out of a crowd of twenty present in the District Office this morning, when an auction was held of a piece of land in the New Territories, only one bidder came forward to offer the upset price, and his bid was accepted.

The fortunate bidder, who represented the Shiu On Wing Company, paid $600 for an area measuring 30,000 square feet of land situate at Ni Ku Chau. This constituted a record figure for cheapness, even for land in the New Territories, but it is laid down that the purchaser must, within two years, spend a sum of not less than $30,000 on a lime kiln and other rateable improvements.

THE U.S. WILL BE THERE.

DELEGATES TO ATTEND LONDON CONFERENCE.

CHINESE TRADEMARK LAW.

London, June 26.

The Manchester Chamber of Commerce has sent to the Foreign Office a resolution expressing its grave apprehension at the action of the minority of 56 Commoners on the 16th in voting against the second reading of the China Indemnity Application Bill, and expressing its disagreement with the reason offered for such action. It says that to delay carrying out the promise made on behalf of Britain to China in 1922 would not only be undignified but would assuredly bring discredit upon Britain. The Chamber holds that to turn such an act of grace into a means of bargaining would not assist, but on the contrary would prejudice unfavourably the negotiations now pending in regard to the new Chinese trademarks legislation.

The Chamber is of the opinion that the possibility of a satisfactory outcome of the negotiations lies in the maintenance of a mutually friendly attitude. Although the news has been received that the Chinese government has decided to extend the period for registration of old trademarks to December 31, it has not yet been officially confirmed. The Chamber has advised its members not to take any further immediate action but to maintain their previous attitude, namely not to register under the act in present its form, pending negotiations during next six months with a view to securing reforms in the law which are considered necessary in order to render the new Chinese law workable.—Reuter.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

New York, June 26.

Towards the close of the Democratic Convention yesterday a resolution was passed to hear the nominating speeches immediately, as the platform committee was not ready to report. A delegate then began to nominate Senator Underwood. There was a demonstration when candidates hostile to Ku Kluxism were mentioned. Collisions with delegates unfavourable to Underwood resulted in bleeding noses. Brilliant orators submitted the claims of Senators Robinson and McAdoo. A vigorous demonstration followed, continuing in the case of Mr. McAdoo until adjournment.

Washington, June 26.

There was considerable merriment in the capitol yesterday, when simultaneously with the news being received from New York that Senator Robinson's name had been submitted for presidential nomination at the Democratic Convention, it became known that the Chevy Chase Golf Club had temporarily suspended Senator Robinson for blackening the eye of another member on the links last week in the course of a dispute.—Reuter's American Service.

NEWSPAPERS IN CHINA.

LECTURE AT Y. M. C. A.

At the Chinese Y. M. C. A. last night a very instructive lecture was given by Mr. Hin Wong, a prominent Chinese journalist, on "The Modern Newspaper and its Field."

A newspaper man of long standing, Mr. Wong who has been for a long time correspondent for the Associated Press of America, Reuter's and other agencies at Canton, is fully qualified to speak on the subject. Until recently Mr. Hin Wong was editor of the Canton Star. He was the victim of a most unpleasant experience at Canton in connection with the false rumours of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's death, being called the "martyr editor."

Mr. Wong touched upon the history, organization, and functions of a modern newspaper in general, pointing out the many inventions introduced for the promotion of circulation, rapid transmission of news, and the publication of newspapers in large quantity at exceptionally low cost to individual subscribers.

Referring to newspapers in China, Mr. Wong said that the Chinese still lacked the facilities enjoyed by publishers in the Western world. There was no efficient telegraph system to transmit news rapidly and cheaply before publication, or fast trains to circulate the papers. The illiteracy of the great mass throughout the country and lack of appreciation or knowledge on the part of Chinese business men of newspapers as a medium for the sales of their products, all necessarily limited the circulation and advertising revenue,—the principal sources of income to a modern newspaper. Newspapers in China, when unable to support themselves through the regular way, had been tempted in many cases to accept subsidy, a cause for their downfall. In spite of all these obstacles, Mr. Wong said, Chinese newspapers had made progress. There were more than ten Chinese papers in Shanghai and other ports which might compare favourably with those in Japan. The militarists and politicians had put Chinese newspapers inside their jurisdiction virtually under ban, but many papers were able to overcome their difficulties, and there was at present no other institution in China which possessed as great an influence as the press. China had only a limited number of newspapers in view of the area of the country and her vast population.

Mr. Wong believed that newspapers in China would improve as channels of communication increased and the reading public grew. Until there was a demand for more and better news, Chinese newspapermen need not to be discouraged. When all Chinese were able to read, Chinese newspapers would be the most influential in the world, for their field was not confined only to China, but also Korea, Indo-China, Japan, and other countries where Chinese was the language of the educated and ruling classes.

At the conclusion of the lecture a hearty vote of thanks was given to Mr. Hin Wong.

OLD BANK LOSES IDENTITY.

On Same Site Since 1560.

Child and Co., the oldest private bank in England and perhaps in the world has been absorbed by Glyn, Mills and Co. in accordance with the will of the Eight Earl of Jersey, senior partner, who died Dec. 31.

Child's Bank which was founded about the year 1560, has occupied the site of its present offices in Fleet Street ever since, and is full of historic associations. Oliver Cromwell, Samuel Pepys, Horace Walpole, the Poet Dryden, Charles II. and Nell Gwyn were among the many notables who had accounts at the bank, which is identical with "Tellson's" in Dicken's "Tale of Two Cities."

The connexion with the bank of the Earl of Jersey can be traced to two romantic elopements. The tenth Earl of Westmoreland, who died in 1741, ran away with the daughter of the banker Child, the couple being married at Gretna Green. Their daughter similarly eloped with the young Earl of Jersey, and the Jerseys ever since have been partners in the banking business.

The latest balance sheet of Child and Co. showed deposits of £3,000,000. Combined with Glyn's they will exceed £30,000,000.

HOW POWDERED MILK IS MADE

Properly pasteurised milk is sprayed under heavy pressure into a chamber through which a current of warm filtered air is passing. The milk is broken up into an almost invisible spray. Each microscopic particle, upon reaching the warm air, loses its moisture instantly by evaporation and the solids fall as a dry powder, the now humid air passing out through a vent.

SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Wave in Motion Within the Earth.

Mr. Ludovic Mann recently announced at a meeting of learned societies in Glasgow his discovery, made by comparing many ancient with modern astronomical observations, that a large wave is in slow motion within the body of our earth.

This wave, he asserted, moves round our planet once every 8,800 years, and causes a slight motion in the position of the axis of the earth and of the poles, while it has given rise to changes in climate. It causes the terrestrial crust to pulsate and accounts for raised and sunken land surfaces. The velocity, direction, and amplitude of the wave had been ascertained, and thus the ages, in years of all ancient land surfaces and of prehistoric periods, could be determined.

A knowledge of the 8,800 years' "nodding" or nutation of the earth's axis had enabled him to read the astronomical registers found in most parts of Europe and America sculptured on rock surfaces. The same key, he said, had been successfully applied to unlock the mysteries of Stonehenge, which was now shown to be a Calendrical monument which registered astronomical events occurring in a period of twelve saroi, the saroi being the cycle of time in which the sun, moon, and nodes recur in the same relative positions.

CANTON CHRISTIAN COLLEGE.

ANNUAL SPEECH DAY.

The annual Commencement Exercises of Canton Christian College took place on Tuesday last in Swasey Hall, the Acting President, Rev. Alex. Baxter, presiding. A large number of guests assembled for the occasion.

The academic year now closing has been marked by an event of outstanding importance in the administration of this College. I refer to the resignation of its honoured President, Dr. C. K. Edmunds, which was reluctantly accepted by the Trustees, to take effect on March 31 of the present year. For years Dr. Edmunds has been connected with this College, first as a member of its teaching staff, and for 16 years as its President. The College owes a great deal to Dr. Edmunds and its recent rapid development has been due in no small measure to his wise leadership, his outstanding ability, and his contagious enthusiasm. In his resignation we have suffered a severe loss. He would not have been so successful a leader in the affairs of this College, however, had he not been at the same time a sincere friend of China and the Chinese people. Fortunately, although Dr. Edmunds has now accepted the position of Provost in Johns Hopkins University, his services have not been lost to this College. He has readily agreed to become one of our Trustees and in this capacity will be able to render to the College and to China many of the important services that have become associated with his name.

The New President.

At their meeting on May 23, 1924, the Trustees elected the Rev. James McClure Henry, B.D., to be the new President of the College, and at the same time elected Mr. Ching Wing Kwong to be Associate President. Mr. Henry has long associations with this College through his father, the Rev. B. C. Henry, who, with Dr. Happer (both missionaries of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.) was largely instrumental in starting it on its way. Through long residence in Canton, Mr. Henry brings with him into his new office of President an intimate knowledge both of the language and the outlook of the Cantonese people, and at the same time a warm devotion to their highest interests and progress. For years Mr. Henry has occupied the position of Vice President of this College, so that he enters upon his new duties with an intimate understanding both of the College itself and of the students it seeks to train.

Of Mr. Ching Wing Kwong I need scarcely speak before this audience. It is not too much to say that he has been Canton Christian College to multitudes of Chinese people. He has been with the College from its earliest beginnings and the College could never have become what it is without his aid. That he has now been raised from being Vice President for Chinese Affairs to be Associate President is an honour he has thoroughly earned, and one the duties of which he will honourably and fittingly carry out.

Financial Gifts.

In other respects the year has not been marked by great events, but rather by hard work and scanty financial resources. A few things, however, deserve brief mention. We started the year with a generous promise from the China Medical Board of the Rockefeller Foundation to contribute half the cost of a science building of which we are greatly in need. The College, however, has not yet found it possible to raise money to pay the other half of the building, so the anticipated science building is still in the future. As an offset to this severe disappointment, however, I have the pleasure of reporting that the roof is now being placed on a fine new college dormitory, the total cost of which up to date is $50,000 H. K., raised by students. This sum has been raised entirely by campaigns carried on by the students now enrolled in the College and its schools, and the building has been most fittingly named Wing Kwong Hall in honour of Mr. Chung Wing Kwong.

Mr. Baxter mentioned other gifts received by the College during the year—a legacy of $20,000 gold from the late Col. Edward H. Haskell, who died in January of this year; three gifts for the use of the Department of Sericulture of the College of Agriculture: $25,000 gold from Mr. Eugene Atwood for a model silk reeling laboratory building; $6,000 gold from Mr. E. E. Bradley for a refrigerating plant, and $5,000 U. S. from the Government through Governor Lino Chung-kai for a survey of the sericulture industry in Kwangtung Province.

Enrolment.

Other gifts from Chinese friends include the following: $17,000 H. K. from Mr. Tsam Lai Teng for a pair of residences, one to be used for an alumni club house; $6,160 H.K. from a Trustee of the College, Mr. Ma Ying Pui toward the erection of two cottages for Chinese staff. Through the generous interest of Chinese friends in contributing nearly $6,000 H.K. through Gen. Lei Fuk Lam and in promising further aid, it has been possible to erect a hospital and dispensary building which is already in use for the care of villagers and workmen.

Report was made of the total enrolment of students for the year in College and preparatory schools, 1,180. In schools maintained by the Student Christian Association, 644. In the two branch schools, located in Hongkong and Canton respectively, 309 students. Grand total, 1,783 students. This is by far the largest enrolment which the institution has ever had and is a significant indication of the growing influence and value of its work.

Mr. Baxter emphasized the great problem which the College has in raising the necessary funds each year to meet the deficit in current expenses and also to provide for normal gradual development. He made special mention of the great difficulty in providing adequate living quarters for students and staff, and expressed the hope that generous friends might further help to meet this need as they had done in the past.

The Chinese Woman.

The student oration of the day was delivered by Miss Liu Fung Ling on the subject "The Epic Woman of China." Miss Liu gave a vivid description of the typical Chinese woman in accordance with the traditions of the past, and discussed some of the changes which are taking place as the result of modern conditions.

Hon. C. C. Wu, Minister of Foreign Affairs, addressed the students on the subject of "Education as a Preparation for Life," stressing the value of preparation for meeting intelligently the duties of citizenship.

Hon. Douglas Jenkins, Consul General of the United States, addressed the students briefly in his capacity as the representative of the Regents of the University of the State of New York, by whom the graduates of Canton Christian College are granted their diplomas.

Fifteen students, five of whom were women, were granted the degree of Bachelor of Arts on the recommendation of the Faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences, and one student was granted the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture on the recommendation of the Faculty of the College of Agriculture. Twenty-eight students of the College of Arts and Sciences, and twelve students of the College of Agriculture were granted two-year junior certificates, and twelve students were granted short course certificates of graduation by the College of Agriculture, having completed a one-year course in agriculture.

Another important feature of the programme was the granting of Middle School certificates to sixty-eight graduates from the four-year course Middle School, the last year of which comprised the work of the college preparatory class. Honours and prizes were granted to students of the Middle School. Honour prizes were also awarded to students in the Overseas School.

A splendid programme, in which the College Band and a Male Quartette assisted was given.

Graduates.

Degrees were conferred on the following:—

Degree of Bachelor of Arts (College of Arts and Sciences).—Au-young Sik Lim, Chan Wing Tait, Choung Lui Kong, Chue Chaak, Miss Lam Sui Yi, Miss Lei Wai Hing, Miss Liu Fung Ling, Lo Koon Wai, Ng Kau Tait, Sz-to Foon, Tong Chaak Kwong, Miss Tong Yat Hing, Tso Tin Sik, Miss Wong Tsui Fung, Yau Luan Shau.

CHILD SPENDTHRIFTS.

The Modern Tendency.

"Oh, mother, I want to go to the pictures this afternoon. Will you get the money out while I run upstairs for my gloves?" The speaker was a schoolgirl of thirteen, and the manner of her speaking and the way in which the mother opened her purse showed that it was no unusual demand.

It is typical of the new money attitude in children, a strange development of a hard-up age which encourages haphazard, spendthrift habits in its boys and girls, writes a contributor to a London paper. Time was when all wise parents gave their youngsters regular pocket money—a weekly allowance of threepence or sixpence, which had to suffice. When the pocket money was gone the boys and girls knew that there was no more until next pay day, and the habit instilled a good sense of money values without overdoing the responsibility. To-day it is rare to come across a child who has regular pocket-money—or if the allowance is given it is merely a farce, and the child knows that mother or daddy will meet any demands for extra cash. The child spendthrift is a fact, and a fact which is going to have serious consequences when, as men and women, the boys and girls of to-day have to grapple with the real money responsibilities of later life.

POCKET MONEY.

The long-pocketed infant with foolish adoring parent has always existed, and there are an enormous number of such children nowadays—boys and girls who fritter away big sums yearly on their pleasures, many of who have standing accounts at important shops.

But it is among other ranks that the great regiment of child spendthrifts are to be found. There was one case, indeed, where the parents of a trio of children declared that they could not possibly afford to give the youngsters regular "allowance"—this after someone pointed out the bad habits which they were fostering by the unwise method of giving money as it was desired. Just for an experiment it was agreed that accounts should be kept for a month, while the old way was continued—the results were illuminating, and at the end of the probation time, fixed pocket-money was put into action.

Dr. Eliot Says--

Most people, educated or uneducated, rich or poor, young or old, except the men well trained for the medical, the artistic or the scientific professions, cannot see or hear straight, make an accurate record of what they have just seen or heard, remember it or draw a logical conclusion from it.

Reading carefully the works of good authors and thinking is the sure remedy for this mental defect.

THE RIGHT TREATMENT FOR INDIGESTION

consists in overcoming the cause of the trouble—the presence of excess acid in the stomach, which attacks its delicate lining and renders smooth, painless digestion impossible. For this purpose Bisurated Magnesia is unequalled for it drives away all pain sickness and flatulence the moment it enters the stomach . . . it does this by neutralising the acid, stopping fermentation, and soothing the inflamed tissues. Try Bisurated for yourself! See how quickly the pain goes . . . see how much better you feel. ### CANTON LAND SEIZURE.

ANNOYS CHINESE MOHAMMEDANS.

"Notice is hereby given that unless title deeds be produced, that piece of land situated near Lanfa Bridge, Kwaifa Hill, and measuring 500 mow in area will be acquired by Leung Luk, of the Taishun Co." So runs a Canton Municipal notice, which is causing a great deal of comment in Mohammedan circles in Canton and Hongkong.

Apparently this latest forfeiture of land and the selling of it over the heads of those who have rights to it, is another of those measures taken with the view to replenishing official coffers, but it has raised a serious religious issue in that the land in question is the cemetery used for the interment of Chinese Mohammedans. Hongkong Mahommedans have relatives buried here, and the matter being one which directly concerns them, the Hongkong Chinese Muslim Cultural and Fraternal Association have written to the Civil Governor pointing out the concern which the notice has caused here. According to Mahommedan usages, the dead should not be exhumed from their graves, and the proposed measure to disinter the remains and put the land to a commercial use is viewed in the light of a sacrilege. It is further pointed out that the land was acquired, freehold, centuries ago and that it had been in the keeping of the Mahommedans, without any question of the ownership being raised, since the Tung dynasty. The letter states that the Mahommedan community can hardly be expected under the circumstance to produce the title deeds asked for by the Government

IMMIGRANT LOSES ALL HIS SAVINGS.

Yoshimatsu Fujita, 25 years old, a Japanese immigrant to America, who returned to Yokohama recently on the "Empress of Australia," lost a purse containing $1400 in the sea just before the boat docked. The young Japanese immigrant, who had hastily returned to his native country to seek a bride and hurry back to America before the new immigration bill becomes effective on July 1, almost fainted when he lost sight of the purse containing the fruits of his long labour in America.

HONGKONG, 27th June, 1924.

LAZY LABOUR.

The old idea that labour in this Colony is cheap as compared to the cost of labour at Home is so old that it is out-of-date and even erroneous. The rate of pay per man per day may be very much less than is the case in England or any other Western country, but the output per man per day is very considerably less. That statement is a serious indictment of the Chinese working man as we know him in Hongkong, but, unhappily, it is a correct reflection of fact. It is more—it is a challenge to his business morality and his general worthiness. Many are the tributes that have been paid to the Chinese worker's skill in craftsmanship, and it is generally conceded that he can "savvy" most things mechanical and can be an artist at his work. He is an accomplished artisan, when he chooses to be, and he is generally a good-humoured worker. But he is to-day losing a deal of the excellent reputation which he formerly enjoyed, and, moreover, he is losing, or has lost, self-respect regarding the measure of service which he is willing to gave to the man who pays him his wages. He wants a fair day's pay. He withholds a fair day's labour. To say so much may be to do an injustice to a large number of men (for we are quite prepared to agree that there are exceptions to the general rule), but it states the bare truth regarding the vast majority of workmen. In the long run, the worker's present policy can only prove harmful to himself.

Let any impartial observer of outdoor Chinese labour in this Colony watch a body of men at work for just one hour, and he will be convinced of the truthfulness of the above assertions. Any architect, any Government official in charge of construction work, any contractor, or any Chinese foreman will bear us out when we say that the majority of the workers with whom they have to deal are becoming the embodiment of lassitude. When on a job, they do not scruple to waste their employer's time—and therefore his money— by sitting about smoking or gambling; they appear to have an ingrained objection to steady, honest work. In building operations especially the result has been greatly increased cost. All materials on on which labour has been required have gone up in price. So has the cost of living, for the same reason. And the living cost will continue to rise until the workers realise that it pays economically to render fair value in labour for the number of hours for which they are paid. In most trades the rate of pay per day is no higher than it should be, having regard to the cost of living, but that same rate of pay would have a very much-increased purchasing power if costs of production were lessened by the exercise of a little more manly energy. It is the old, old story of the vicious circle. Less effort means either more hours or more workers. This, in turn, spells higher costs. Higher costs involve higher prices. Higher prices leads to demands for more wages. And so on round the circle. It is a never-ending game, out of which the worker emerges with lessened credit all round.

If this Colony is to be a fit place in which to live, for Chinese and foreigners alike, this "ca' canny" attitude must cease. We believe that some of our leading Chinese (maybe even the Chinese Chamber of Commerce) could help in this direction by getting the contractors together and imparting to them some sound advice on the effects of the workers' laziness, to be passed on to the men concerned. Or something might even be done by judicious propaganda in the form of printed statements of simple economic facts for distribution amongst the working classes. Failing some such method, the only solution would appear to be the general application of the piece-work system to the Colony's artisans. Then a man would only get that which he has rightfully earned. As things are, he claims the maximum of pay for the minimum of effort.

Canton Lies.

We have refrained for a considerable period from referring to the puerile fulminations which, from time to time, crop up in the columns of our contemporary the Canton Gazette. Its editorials are often of a nature that suggest a mania for throwing mud, at the expense of simple truthfulness: The Hongkong Telegraph, along with the other English papers in Hongkong, has repeatedly been insulted by this Canton organ, either directly or by insinuation. Those pitiful lies can never harm us, for the public can judge for itself what the Canton Gazette's splenetic outbursts are worth; but they are exasperating, and lest our silence might be taken for consent, we shall not miss this opportunity of pointing out how the most ordinary traditions of better class journalism have failed to make any impression with our Canton contemporary. In its leading article yesterday this journal flings another handful of dirt in the direction of this British Colony. Its opening sentence reads as follows:—"While the foreign newspapers of Hongkong went amok and lost their editorial sanity over the Shameen Bomb Outrage, it is satisfactory to learn that at least one newspaper in Shanghai has adduced information supporting the view that the bomb outrage was of Annamite origin." Perhaps a lunatic would agree with that accusation against the Hongkong newspapers—no sane person could! Speaking for ourselves, we were consistent in our statements about the possibility (and then the proof) that the assassin was an Annamite. And the same can be said of the other Hongkong newspapers. Perhaps our very kindness to the Canton administration both in our editorial and news columns has caused this blind rage that finds vent in deliberate calumnies. At the time of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's reported "death" we were the first to refute more rumour, and, possibly chagrined at our failure to make a bad slip, the Canton Gazette classed us amongst what it chose to insinuate were deliberately propagandist organs. We immediately, on that occasion, sent our contemporary a formal protest and demand for a retraction. The very unfortunate part of the matter is that this Canton newspaper is generally accepted as the mouthpiece of the Sun Yat-sen party. Its campaign of insults levelled at this Colony is thus liable to be taken as having the approval of the Canton Government, and is not calculated to improve relations between the two places.

"A CERTAIN FOREIGN POWER."

ACCUSED OF ESPIONAGE IN RUSSIA.

Moscow, June 26.

A message from Leningrad states that a supreme court martial has sentenced to death nine persons accused of highway robbery and espionage and counter-revolutionary activity. Twenty-two others have been sentenced to varying long terms of imprisonment.

All the accused are alleged to be in the pay of one Savinkoff, who is said to be one of the principal agents in the counter-espionage service of a certain foreign Power.—Reuter.

CLOCKS THAT GO.

QUICKER THAN MOTOR BUSES.

A Chinese coolie, who was arrested in Kowloon City for unlawful possession of a clock valued at $5, was charged before Mr. E. W. Hamilton, at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning, with the theft of the clock from a motor bus which was left unattended on vacant ground at Kowloon Tong.

Sub Inspector A. Clark told his Worship that after defendant was arrested it was discovered that the clock was the property of the Chun Hing Motor Bus Co. He was told by one of the Company's servants that over a dozen of these clocks were missing from the buses.

COMPENSATION.

Compensation means something given or received in exchange for an equivalent; or to strike a balance. Or it may mean to make amends. This is the sense we understand compensation in the ordinary affairs of life.

But is there not a deeper meaning? I do believe that in the dealings between our soul and our Creator there is a law of Compensation which we cannot escape. It is expressed in the rugged words: "Be not deceived: whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." The compensating law, which returns measure for measure in the things of life.

But we may think of Compensation in a sweeter sense. There may seem inequality, so that to the superficial eye there cannot be compensation for suffering, the blows of ill fortune, or bereavement. Yet there are those who, though often their hours are filled with pain, have learned the truth of the words of Campbell: "One moment may with bliss repay, Unnumbered hours of pain." Pain is not pleasant to endure, but I know of nothing more inspiring than the spectacle of those who have triumphed over it and received their compensation.

There are hours in our mortal life which stand out like a green oasis in the desert. It may happen that Fortune does not smile on us. Financial cares weigh down the mind. The future looms dark and heavy. We see others well forward on the road leading to prosperity, but just as the clouds will sometimes break and the sunshine pour down in golden glory, so there are those sacred experiences when we realise that material things are after all, but fleeting, that they will pass away as a dream, and we are foolish if we allow them to fill us with fear. This is real compensation. It cheers, animates, strengthens the spirit.

I remember sympathising with a mother on the cares of her little family. Through the day she had not a moment's peace. "Yes," she told me, "they are rather a worry. But when they are in bed and I kiss them 'good-night,' and I see them settle down to slumber, it makes up for it all." This is the sweet and mysterious compensating element of mother love. It endures much, yet a moment of contemplation wipes out all the worry and the work.

The children when they grow up should see to it that the parents have their compensation. They gave much; let them receive in return. Perhaps they ask for so little—remembrance, a kind word, a gift on a birthday or a wedding anniversary. But as they grow older, and have leisure to think things out, these little acts become more precious to them. Remember, compensation is spoiled if it has to be solicited. Let it be spontaneous.

THE WORLD'S BEST.

HERCULEAN STRUGGLES AT WIMBLEDON

Briton's Great Victory.

London, June 26.

The sun at Wimbledon was blazing and the heat unbearable. There was a large gathering of spectators, about 15,000, including their Majesties the King and Queen.

In the first centre court game Norman Brookes beat the American, Francis Hunter, 3-6,6-3,6-4, 5-7,6-2. On an outer court Kingscote beat Ritchie, 6-4,6-3,6-3.

Brookes' defeat of last year's American finalist, Hunter, was a triumph of genius and wizardry. Hunter began brilliantly, but Brookes soon got into his stride and played continually to the American's backhand. The final set was most exciting. Two games were thrice deuced, including the last. Hunter then double-faulted and gave Brookes the winning point. Brookes was cheered vociferously.

Norman Brooks.

On the centre court was played a thrilling first round doubles match, the Americans, Washburn and Williams, defeating the Frenchmen, Borotra and LaCoste, 5-7,6-3,4-6,6-46-3.

Then the South African, Raymond, brilliantly disposed of Brugnon in a terrific struggle, 8-6,2-6,4-6,12-10,6-4 in the third round of the singles.

On an outer court, in first round doubles, the holders Lycett and Godfree beat Aitken and Ingram, 6-0,6-3,4-6,4-6,9-7.

In the other third round singles, the winners included the Britisher Gilbert, the South African Spence, the Indian Jacob, the Australian Wat, and the American Richards.

In the ladies' doubles, Mdlle. Longlen and Miss Ryan, and the Americans Miss Wills and Miss Wightman, scored easy victories over their opponents.—Reuter.

"OIL! OIL!"

ROW IN U.S. DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

New York, June 26.

Mr. McAdoo's supporters, whose demonstration last night lasted for over an hour, started another demonstration on the resumption to the Democratic Convention to-day, when the nomination of Mr. McAdoo was seconded.

The progress of the McAdoo marchers was somewhat impeded by the Smith cohorts in the aisles. Smith sympathisers in the galleries also started shouting "Oil! Oil!" as a sign of disapproval of Mr. McAdoo.

When order was restored, Mr. Franklin Roosevelt proposed Governor Smith as the Presidential candidate. His panegyric ended with storms of cheering and shouting and horn-blowing.

Smith delegates then seized the standard of New York State and carried it in procession around the hall, a band contributing to the din. The demonstration lasted an hour and a half. The demonstrators brought in a brass band, which unceasingly played the popular song of the moment entitled "Eastside and Westside." A fire siren used by fire engines to clear the streets added to the hideous noise.

A LOCAL CAUSERIE.

[BY "IMPRESSIONIST".]

The attempted murder of M. Merlin, resulting in the death of five innocent persons and serious injuries being inflicted to many others, whilst leaving the intended victim miraculously unhurt has furnished the main topic of conversation in this Colony for the past week. Happily it can be stated that such occurrences are extremely rare in this part of the world. The assassin has paid for the crime with his life, and a friend has now obligingly come forward with his name and photo to aid the Indo-Chinese authorities in their work of ferreting out the gang, which, in this case, appears to have set about its nefarious task with singular resoluteness of purpose and tenacity, witness the disclosures that at every port at which the gubernatorial party landed the activities of the revolutionaries were apprehended.

This attempted act of assassination is to be condemned by all upholders of law and order, and we can join with the authorities in their congratulations to the Governor-General on his marvellous escape. It was only a few days previous to the outrage that His Excellency, recognising the value of native confidence in his administration, embraced the opportunity of his visit here to come into contact with local Annamites, and the cordial exchange of views at that reception had struck a harmonious note in the relations between the Annamites and the French. M. Merlin, on that occasion, hastened to assure his hearers that in the work of placing Indo-China in the important position to which its size and productiveness entitled it, the Annamites were "co-ordinates" with their French confreres in that country. That was eminently satisfactory.

* * *

His Excellency undoubtedly possesses the goodwill and respect of all level-headed and right-thinking Annamites, for which reason the treacherous attack made on him at the dinner party on the Shameen came as much a shock to them as it was to people of other nationalities. Once more the point is featured that in every flock there are to be found black sheep. It has become apparent, from the reports in connection with this case, that beneath the apparently tranquil surface of affairs in Indo-China there is a strong underlying current of restlessness which in the past has found expression in sporadic outbreaks which were quelled as soon as they arose. Engineered by members of the extremist party, as in the present case, they served no more useful purpose than the causing of bloodshed and the making of the lot of their more peaceable countrymen a more unhappy one to bear. Elevation of the masses to a finer perception of their responsibilities as citizens of the French Republic may perhaps be achieved through educational channels, but, with some of the more hot-headed ones, the only results achieved appear to have been the ready assimilation of the ideas and practices of the Bolsheviks.

Weird details, enough to raise the hair and produce a cold sensation down the spine, are given in the story of the Canton man who rose from the dead after his body had been encased in a coffin and prepared for burial. On the day of the funeral, it is stated a thunderstorm occurred, accompanied by heavy rain. The grave was filled with water and the coffin containing the body of a Canton citizen, was left beside it to await interment on the coming of finer weather. When the funeral party returned to the cemetary two days later, the lid was found off the coffin, and the "dead" man missing from it! This was on the 17th day of the 5th moon of last year. On the 24th day of the 4th moon of this year, the wife of the dead man had a dream. She saw in a vision, as it were the image of her dead mother-in-law, bidding her to go to the West Gate of the City where she would find her lost one.

* * *

The summons was obeyed by the woman, and at the West Gate of the City on the following day she came upon a beggar who bore an unmistakeable resemblance to the husband she had believed was dead. His memory appeared to have been lost and he was unable to reply to the questions which she plied on him. Eventually, on being taken home, certain articles were found on him which provided the means of identification. Still doubting, the woman would not believe, until she had seen two moles on him. After weeks of careful nursing, his memory returned, and he told the family that a loud clap of thunder on the day of his burial woke him up. He freed himself from the coffin, and, with the memory of his name and antecedents gone from his mind, he had led a mendicant's life until found. The whole story teems with the supernatural, but its authenticity is vouched for by a constable in the Hawkers Department of the Hongkong Police Force.

NO IRISH REPUBLIC.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S STATEMENT.

London, June 26.

In the House of Commons, Mr. J. H. Thomas, dealing with Irish representation at Washington, said there seemed to be an impression that if an Irish Republic were asked for it would be conceded. It should be understood that any such demand would receive the same reply as he believed would have been be received from either of the two previous Governments. The present Government believed that peace and friendship could be maintained in Ireland by the establishment of the Free State as a self governing Dominion, in the British commonwealth, and in no other way.—Reuter.

STOLEN BRANDY.

GODOWN COOLIE IN TROUBLE.

Mr. E. W. Hamilton fined a Kowloon Godown coolie $10, with the alternative of 14 days' hard labour, at the Kowloon Magistracy for stealing one bottle of brandy from a case which was being unloaded from the s.s. Malwa yesterday.

Mr. A. W. Heron, wharfinger of the Kowloon Godown Co., prosecuted on behalf of the Company.

Mr. J. Lowrie, of the P. & O. S.N. Company said that he was on the s.s. Malwa at 2.30 p.m. yesterday, when he noticed a sling of cargo going up the hatch with a broken case on the top. Witness then walked to the ship's rail. When the cases were placed on a truck, defendant went up and untied the sling. He was seen to take a bottle out of the broken case, jump down again and put it on the ledge under the wharf. Witness shouted to defendant to put the bottle back in its place again. Defendant then picked up the bottle, but accidently broke it, badly cutting his own hand.

Defendant denied taking the bottle.

His Worship, convicting, said that there was a certain amount of temptation and he would have been more sympathetic with the man if had admitted the offence.

BASEBALL.

SOUTH CHINA v. CLUB LUSITANO.

A League game between these two teams will be played at Happy Valley at 4.30 on Saturday afternoon. The South China will put up a strong line-up, in which Richard Shim will pitch with his partner Ed. Kwong, the catcher. Shim pitched every game for China and lost no game in last year's League. In the first game this year against the Japanese he showed much science. Lee and Chang, who work together with Chan and Lee as in-fielders, are very fast. The Club players are also good in fly balls and also fast runners, but rather poor in batting. The lines-up will be as follows:—

T. Chang, First Base.
K. F. June, 2nd. Base.
Chas. Chan, Short Stop.
S. L. Lee, 3rd. Base.
N. D. Seid, Left Field.
P. F. Choy, Centre Field.
Y. K. Chu, Right Field.
R. Shim, Pitcher.
E. Kwong, Catcher.
Substitutes:—L. T. Loung, R. Ho. H. Lee and Y. T. Leung.

SUNDAY TENNIS.

Sunday tennis is encouraged by the Rector of Wootton, Northamptonshire, and at a meeting of the local tennis club, which he attended, it was decided to open the tennis courts on Sunday, except during the hours of Divine Service, in the morning and the evening. The Rector said that nowadays people were apt to go to extremes, but there was no need to go to the extremes of either Puritanism or frivolity. It was necessary to keep the body healthy, the mind clean, and the soul pure, and he thought it was necessary that all these should benefit on Sundays as on other days.

TO-DAY'S MISCELLANY.

Fishmongers' Hall, where recently the graduation Dinner of University of London took place, is of great interest from an historic point of view, although it is not one of the most ancient buildings of the City. The Guild of Fishmongers, which is one of the few City Companies still actively carrying on the rights confered by Charter, has had its home on the spot from very early days. Perhaps, however, the most interesting incident in the history of hall was its conversion into a hospital for officers during the war. This hospital was controlled under the direction of the City of London Branch of the Red Cross Society, and its cost was borne by a generous member of the Stock Exchange.

Nineteen pictures by Fantin Latour, which a quarter of a century ago could have been bought for about £500, fetched 14,888 guineas at Christie's last month. Some years before his death Latour, who was generally considered the finest interpreter of flower beauty since Van Huysum, nearly two centuries ago, could not dispose of his work. The first of his pictures sold was "Tannhauser," which realised 1,200 guineas. Then came a painting of pink and white hydrangeas, and the hammer fell at 2,100 guineas. The highest price was paid for "Rushbasket containing Roses," which went for 2,600 guineas.

CAMERA NEWS

M. MERLIN IN SHANGHAI.—M. Merlin, the Governor-General of French Indo-China, was guest at a reception at the French Consulate-General in Shanghai recently, and was welcomed by a large number of French residents. Our picture shows M. and Mme. Merlin arriving at the Consulate, where M. Wilden, French Consul-General, is seen welcoming them.

M. MERLIN'S DEPARTURE.—M. Merlin is here shown just before his departure from Shanghai for Hongkong.

NEW SHANGHAI CHURCH.—The Rev. C. L. Boynton delivering his address at the ceremony of laying the foundation stone of the New Community Church in Shanghai. Lying on the stone may be seen the sealed box which was placed in a corner. The box contains records of the work of the Community Church in Shanghai since its small beginning. Hundreds of people were present and "Faith of our Fathers" was sung by the entire congregation.

MEMBERS OF CHINESE KU KLUX KLAN.—Although the officials of the Chinese Ku Klux Klan decline to accept the offer of a Shanghai newspaper to come out into the open and explain the existence of their organization, further proof of its existence is provided by this picture, the first to be published of the Klan. These four members are in complete regalia, ready for the patriotic work of ridding China of abuses.

ON THE ROCKS.—The Glen Line steamer Glenart is on the rocks at Video Island, whence she has now been towed off. The above picture was taken early in the salvage work, and shows the fore part of the vessel as she struck hard up against the cliff, with engineers, pump-men, etc., looking over the job. Derricks, pumps, etc., are shown already at work.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.

"MOTHERS-IN-LAW".

Perhaps the only fault that could be found with "Mothers-in-Law," which will be screened at the Queen's Theatre from to-day till Monday at the 5.15 and 9.15 performances, is that there are some scenes which are too gorgeous to harmonise with the purport of the picture's theme. This, however, may prove all the greater attraction with the majority of cinema patrons who go to the pictures with no other object than to be entertained.

Be that as it may, it is no exaggeration to claim that this production will satisfy those who seek as a diversion from the day's routine and, simultaneously, come up to the requirements of those who enter into the spirit of the story to fathom out for themselves the influence on human nature, of the moral indicated

There is a decided moral to this screen-play which chiefly concerns the early days of married life. The triangle of mankind—but not what is popularly known as the eternal triangle is depicted in varying moods. The originality the essence of every play is that the triangle consists of a young couple and the husband's mother.

Capable direction has assured continuity of plot and interest never wags although exceptional dancing and seaside scenes are interspersed here and there. No reference need be made to the story itself as it follows the usual lines of home life but it is in the unique turns that the enjoyment is derived from. A fitting climax answers the question of the relations between mother, son and daughter-in-law.

Gaston Glass capably portrays the part of husband to the vivacious and wealthy young heiress played by Ruth Clifford. Other featured actors in the cast are Josef Swickard who will be remembered for his part in "The Four Horsemen," Marie Curtis a Californian swimming champion and Edith Yorke who gives an exquisite, possibly the best, performance as the little charming mother and mother-in-law. A novelty has been introduced by twelve girls taking the parts of golden statues of Venus in the ball-room scene.

LAW OF CONTEMPT.

"Mystery Woman" Case.

The King's Bench recently fined the Evening Standard £1,000, the Daily Express £300 and the Manchester Guardian £300—for contempt of court in connection with the Crumbles case.

The Attorney-general said these papers published accounts of their own crime investigations, letters, interviews etc., calculated to prejudice the course of justice. The Evening Standard also spirited away Ethel Duncan referred to as the "mystery woman in the case."

TEASERS

—She Loves Me: (No.1):

Every one is familiar with the game of plucking petals off a daisy, an often indulged in by young lovers. If the number of petals proves to be odd, the young lady is supposed to be in love with the petal picker; but if an even number of petals are on the daisy, she "loves him not."

There are four daisies in the drawing. Count the petals on each one with your eye, and see how many of them are "love mes" and how many are not. In other words, try to discover which daisies have an odd number of petals and which have an even number. You must make all your estimates within a limit minute, so work quickly!

When you have finished, take thirty seconds more to estimate which daisy has the most petals on it. Try this "teaser" on your friends and look for tomorrow's checkup.

Yesterday's Teaser.

Score 1 point for every card you remember and an extra point for each one you had in its correct position. A perfect score of 16 is exceptional; 15, very good; 12, good; 8-10, average; less than 7, poor.

WEMBLEY "NOT FOR SALE."

Oil-King's £8,000,000 "Feeler Turned Downs"

Wembley is not for sale.

Mr. Barrington Hooper, Chief of the Exhibition Publicity Department, has shattered with a word the dreams of Mr. L. Britton, the American oil-king who arrived in London with talk of much fine gold and plans to buy the Exhibition and transform it later into a "Joy Village" for Londoners. He talked of eight million pounds.

All he has achieved is to amuse England; and provoke a dignified refusal of his offer from the Exhibition authorities.

"It is a pure myth," said Mr. Barrington Hooper in an interview. "There is not the slightest possibility of the deal going through."

So London will not have its "Joy Village" and Mr. Britton will be left with eight million pounds burning holes in his pockets.

SERBIAN HUMOUR.

Murder and Patent-Leather Boots.

A tragi-comic detail of the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga of Serbia is recorded by Mr. Wickham Steed in the Review of Reviews.

The day before the assassinations, a well-known Danish journalist had "interviewed" King Alexander, who had wished him also to "interview" Queen Draga on the morrow. Though he had intended to leave Belgrade that night, the journalist decided to stay on at his hotel for twenty four hours and, after writing out his interview with the King, went to bed, leaving a pair of patent leather boots outside the door of his room so that they might be cleaned in readiness for his audience of the Queen in the morning. He woke late, dressed hurriedly, and opened the door to get his boots. They had disappeared. He rang for the valet but in vain. Then he went to the head of the stairs and shouted for a maid or a waiter. At length a boy appeared.

"You need no patent leather boots," the boy replied.

"You impudent young rascal, I must have my boots," roared the journalist. "Bring them immediately!"

"I tell you, you need no patent leather boots," persisted the boy.

"Devil take you!" shouted the journalist. "I am expected at the Palace. I have to see the Queen. Bring me my patent leather boots at once."

"The Queen is dead," said the boy with a smirk. "The King is also dead; the Prime Minister is also dead; I tell you, you want no patent leather boots."

ANARCHISTS TO MEET.

Gathering of Delegates in Shanghai.

The Far Eastern Convention of Anarchists, which has been discussed by Russian anarchists for some time, will be held in Shanghai in the latter part of June or the beginning of July, according to a report.

The convention will discuss methods of propaganda. The Russian anarchists have appointed a committee who are able to speak Chinese, Korean and Japanese fluently.

Japanese anarchists will be represented at the conference by Mr. Sano, former professor of Waseda University, Mr. Takatsu and Mr. Kondo, all of them well known as anarchists reports the Japan Advertiser. It is reported that the Russian anarchists are of the opinion that the present condition of Japan offers a golden opportunity for the propagation of anarchists in that country.
